What's New

The incredibly soft and dreamy Bonmoher is here. The full range of delightful colors are all in stock and look like a bouquet in a basket. It pairs up beautifully with Urth Yarns 16. I have knitted up a small sample and find it to be one of the best kid mohair and silk blends I have ever had the pleasure to work with.

The Bozzolo from Berroco is in and it is one of the lightest and softest worsted weight cottons that I have ever worked with. There are beautiful solid colors as well as some that color shift. They are great by themselves but work well together. The patterns are lovely too. More should be arriving soon from Berroco.

Summer Sesame has a few new colors which will be perfect for the knitter, crocheter and weaver. There are also new colors in Spree and Meraki which are exquisite.

From Lang we got one color of the fabulous Secret Garden and am anxiously waiting on all the other colors arriving.

There are some new Tunisian interchangeable crochet hooks in stock as well as Tunisian Crochet Sets. Pretty to look at as well as lovely to work with.

Knit, Spin, Weave or Crochet

Reserve your spot ahead of time and bring your knitting, spinning, weaving or crochet for a couple of hours dedicated to you. A great way to get something accomplished with like minded friends. Join me on April 6th at 3pm.

Wine, Design & Mystery Box!

There was an added surprise at the last Wine, Design & Mystery Box when Mira from Baah Yarns joined us via Zoom. I hope we can tempt her again sometime soon. I just know that she will be putting something special into this next box. I promise not to open it until the 10th of April at 6:30pm. Reservations are required.

Seashore Kerchief

This is a versatile little kerchief that is perfect for the summer air conditioning that always seems to find the back of your neck in a restaurant. Make it in a linen or linen blend for a lovely accent accessory. Join me on April 20th.

Begin Tunisian Crochet for A Shawl

Kelly will be teaching a series of classes that will end in the sensational Tunisian Sampler Shawl. While you are learning each of the three stitches that go into the shawl you will make three very useful washcloths each with a different stitch. The fourth class will pull all that you have learned together and add some increases as well as pattern reading so that your shawl is absolutely fabulous. Join Kelly on April 20th, 27th, May 4th & 18th.

Aranami Shawl

I have always loved this shawl with its gentle undulating waves of color. Every section builds on the one before it to make a fun knit with dramatic results. While you can make it in one color I think that the many colors of Urth Yarns 16 would be absolutely perfect. You could do a fade of color or just have fun and put as many colors as you would like into it. Join me on April 27th.

Crochet, Basics & Beyond!

Join Kelly as she takes beginners through the basics but if you have a "beyond" question let me know when you sign up.

Want to See if Weaving is For You
