Thank You

Bob and I would like to thank you for all your thoughtful caring messages and prayers. He is now home from the hospital and will be on antibiotics for a while yet. Each day gets a little easier and he is continually getting stronger. Your caring and understanding means so much to both of us. Thank you.

What's New

There is something wonderful coming in from Urth Yarn. I am really excited to get my hands on it. Many delightful colors and I hope you enjoy it as much as I think that you will.

The Spring/Summer collections will be beginning to arrive from Berroco and Lang. There will be some super soft cottons and cotton blends. Some linens and linen blends. The colors are rich and strong or soft and subtle. A really exciting collection this year.

Don't forget to check out the Blank Canvas yarns. They are all natural and many of them are really soft and can be used for so many garments and accessories.

From Emma Ball we have the Sheep drawstring bags, totes, zippered pouches and tins back in stock. Lovely!

Old Dog New Tricks

As Bob was at Allegheny General Hospital I could not take any knitting into the hospital so what was I going to do? Crochet! I found a lovely scarf pattern that was made in sport weight yarn and only single crochet. I thought how hard can this be. Once I figured out with Kelly's help, how to work the single (American style) I have had so much fun. It is still a work in progress but each day I am trying to add to it. The pattern is called the Astrid Scarf and I am hoping that Kelly will turn this into a class.

No Classes - March 2nd

On March 2nd there will be no classes but the shop will be open from 10am until 2pm for shopping or just come in and use the space to Knit, Spin, Weave or Crochet.

Knit, Spin, Weave or Crochet

Saturday, March 2nd, bring your knitting, spinning, weaving or crochet and spend time with other fiber enthusiasts. The shop space will be available for you to enjoy. There will be no instruction on this Saturday. Spend as much or as little time as you like.

Socks!

The February Advanced Sock Class is going to happen in March due to circumstances beyond my control. This pattern will have options for using a chart or reading the words. I am loving the Amble yarn and can't wait to wear them.

Azalea

Another class that was postponed but will happen now in March. I don't often make two of the same garments but this might be the exception. For the sample I made the sleeves full length but I think that I would like to have a shorter sleeve version. Loving the Feliz.
