What's New At Dyed In The Wool

The new colors have arrived from Carol Feller for her Nua line along her latest pattern book. The colors are deep and rich and just waiting to be worked.

Daisy is the newest yarn from Knit One, Crochet Too. It is a perfect spring and summer yarn with light and bright colors. The 38% Linen, 32% Silk and 30% Hemp blend that works up to a sport weight that you will enjoy working with.

From Fyberspates we have the latest colors of Cumulus which is a delicious blend of 74% Baby Suri Alpaca and 26% Mulberry Silk. Touchably soft and lightweight.

We have eight colors in the latest yarn from Rowan called Cotton Cashmere. This soft and lightweight yarn comes in bright and airy colors and with a 85% Cotton and 15% Cashmere blend it will be a delight to work with and wear.

Just in time for summer knitting, Provence by Classic Elite has arrived. In a beautiful array of colors and is in 102yard skeins of Mercerized Egyptian Cotton. This DK weight yarn has a soft luster and a wonderful twist.

The latest books from Rowan have also arrived including the Rowan Magazine #63. Rowan Baby Knits lives up to the Rowan reputation for amazingly soft and desirable knits for the babies in your life.

Little Dudes covers children from the age of 3 through 12 years. There are plain sweaters and vests with some fabulous pattern options.

New or Notable

The latest Foundations patterns have arrived from Daphne at the Fibre Company and this time the focus is on Luma and Canopy Fingering. I knitted up the lovely shawl in Luma and plan to work something in the Canopy shortly. Two beautiful yarns and fabulous patterns. We are always delighted with Fibre Company.

A Little Housekeeping

We have been lucky with the weather so far and have only had to cancel one class this year. We will post on our Dyed In The Wool Ravelry Forum and also on Facebook if we have to cancel.

The Ravelry Forum is also a way that we will post any fun patterns that we see. Some patterns are free for a limited time so it is always good to check and see. Lynda and I sift through Ravelry looking for interesting patterns with our breakfast so we often post around 9am.

Classes

Elgin Cowl

The delicate Elgin Cowl would make a wonderful gift for yourself or someone dear to you. If you haven't worked with beads before this is a great place to start. This simple cowl was worked in Andorra but can be worked in Canopy Fingering, Titus or many other choices.

Stash Class

If you have any leftover yarn that you want to work into something wonderful then you need Lynda's Stash Class. After you have signed up, gather up your stash and bring it to the class. Lynda will show you how to analyze, sort and prepare to make a masterpiece from your leftovers.

Master Class

Turning Dreams Into Reality

If you have ever wondered where the designers start then get your little gray cells over to Carol's class. She will be offering a design class to explore your idea, turn it into a sketch, begin yarn sampling and selection through swatching and finally into the pattern writing and design process. This class will be limited in size but not in scope!
