What's New At Dyed In The Wool

Just in time for BritSpin we received a wonderful box of goodies from Alexandra. In the box were 4 ounce bundles of Mixed BFL and some Targhee, Silk and Bamboo bundles. The mixed BFL is a combination of light and dark blue faced leicester which gives masterful shading during the dying process.

The Minimal Sweater from the cover of Rowan Magazine 65 will begin on the 28th of September. Cotton Glace comes in a beautiful selection of colors and is perfect for a Spring and Fall wardrobe.

There are amazing colors in the selection of Rowan's Creative Linen that are just waiting to be knitted into the stunning Cuggle. This sweater was also featured in Rowan Magazine 65 and is perfect for so many body types. What is better with Fall coming than a soft cabled sweater to curl up in.

The One Sweater from The Fibre Company has begun and the response is incredible. The count is now at 43 and we already have three finishers. Kim, Elizabeth and Susan have wasted no time and have completed their projects. Kim brought hers in last week after it blocked and the photograph will be on the website. We will be creating a special featured page on the website to show off all these amazing creations in the fabulous colors of The Fibre Company's Cumbria. Thank you Daphne.

Sindar has sent us the softest, fluffiest, cuddliest yarn for Fall. It is called Bunny so you can just imagine what this feels like but this yarn has to be touched to be believed. There is a beautiful little bolero pattern to go with it. Lynda is enjoying knitting with it now.

Our Christmas Fingering weight yarn has arrived so those of you who ordered it we have your put aside.

Rowan Mode Trunk Show

The Rowan Mode Trunk Show will be with us from October 18th through November 3rd. The garments are incredible and to give you a small taste we can tell you that the Cabled Skirt, the Cowl Cardigan the the Sleeveless Jacket will be a small part of the Trunk Show.

A Wine & Design to Remember

Amanda from Lorna's Laces will be with us on September 25th. The response to this Wine & Design has been incredible so we are offering two time slots; one at 2pm and the other at 7:30pm. If you haven't already signed up don't wait too long. Wednesday is coming up fast. We will end our Wine & Designs for this year with our Annual Halloween Party on the 30th.

Fairisle Knitting Anyone?

This month we will be exploring one of my favorite knitting techniques, Fairisle. We will begin with the pretty Golden Pear Hat which I have expanded into four different sizes. We will follow that up with the Golden Pear Wristers worked on double point needles. The third class in the series will be the Forget Not Mitts. The Golden Pear duo is worked with Kenzie and the Forget Not Mitts are kitted up from The Alpaca Company.

Cuggle

We really love this sweater. It has a super body line that suits every body style. The yarn is Creative Linen which will wear beautifully and get softer every time it is washed and worn. There will be a limited number of places for this class.

BritSpin

Our team will be spinning their wheels and spindles from October 9th through the 13th. We are really excited about this challenge and are hoping to do well. Who doesn't love an international challenge!
