Newest Arrivals

The Smooshy with Cashmere Pop Up Club is back at Dyed In The Wool. The February color is amazing. I will be sharing it with you at the beginning of February.

The LaJolla COM (color of the month) is another fabulous shade. We are so looking forward to it arriving.

Martin Storey has added 6 incredibly saturated colors to the Moordale yarn. There is a French Navy that is stunning blue, a color called Sloe which is a dramatic burgundy. Orange Peel is a bold burnt orange, Peony is a magnificent magenta. Pillar Box is the richest red which is the color of the Royal Mail Boxes (also known as Pillar Boxes) and the Pea is the color of fresh cut spring grass. I already loved the available colors of this yarn but this rounds out the collection.

To go with these magnificent colors there is a new pattern book by Martin Storey which has a nice collection of accessories and sweaters. The Moordale Collection One was a great pattern book and this latest Collection is incredible. These patterns are available through Ravelry as individual patterns but I see value in the pattern book as I can think of at least three patterns that I would like to knit. At the moment I am working on the Swale which is the pattern that is featured on the cover.

Carol Feller's Nua & Nua Worsted

I ordered Nua and Nua Worsted for the February KALs last Monday, the 18th. The yarn shipped from Fyberspates in England on Tuesday and arrived in the shop on Thursday morning. This yarn is delightful to work with and I am so excited to see this great yarn now available in a worsted weight.

I have created packets for everyone working the KAL so your yarn is ready for pickup and the homework will be allocated shortly. The Dacite is made in Nua Worsted. Korat, Transome & Twining are all made in Nua Sport. Really excited about these great KALs.

Carol Feller Coffee & A Chat

On January 30th we will be hosting coffee and a chat with Carol Feller. You don't have to be participating in the KALs to join us, you just have to enjoy meeting other knitters. Carol's designs are detailed but not complicated as she walks you through each stage. I have enjoyed wearing six of her designs and am looking forward to adding a few more to my wardrobe.

Valentine Boo

On Sunday, February 14th Bev will be releasing the first clue in her latest MKAL. I am still trying to decide which yarn to pick, I am thinking Gleem Lace or Exquisite. Which yarn will you pick?

Coffee, a Chat and Instruction with Bev from Boo Knits

Bev is going to join us on Sunday, February 28th at 2pm for an afternoon of chat and fun. Bev would also like to demonstrate one of the interesting techniques that we will find in Clue Four. Haven't knitted a Boo yet? You can still join us and enjoy talking lace, beads and so much more.

Don't forget to sign up for the Zoom Classes and coffee with Carol Feller or with Bev from Boo Knits. To sign up just send me an email and I will send you the invitation.

If you would like to join your regular class but need to join via Zoom, again please let me know ahead of time so that I can get an invitation out to you in advance.
