New Arrivals

The Spring/Summer collection from Berroco has arrived and it is truly wonderful. I loved the Gaia yarn for its subtle texture and softness but the Lumi has a tiny sparkle without giving up its texture. I do think that Splash is going to be one of my favorites, it has just splashes of brilliant color throughout that makes it really unique. There are lovely pattern books that are specific to all the yarns and I am sure there will be more patterns to come. The Vintage Baby Handpaint is super soft and lovely to handle with some pretty little colors throughout a plain background.

I have to make room for the Spring/Summer yarns - so, from February 21st until the end of the month the lovely and super soft chunky Dash will be on sale for 30% off.

The Ashford Looms are here along with a few heddles (still more to come).

When I was clearing the warehouse I came across a boxed Umbrella Swift that I didn't know was there. So, if you are looking for a swift I do have one in stock. Phase 1 of the reorganization is almost complete then on to Phase 2 (when I figure out what that is going to be).

Spring Tee or Sweater

Are you ever drawn to a certain pattern, you keep looking at it again and again? That happened to me with the Sea Haven sweater by Jennifer Shiels Toland. I was drawn to the lovely detail around the yoked neckline and the options of short or long sleeves and waist shaping or straight. I finally decided to knit it and am so glad I did. If you would like to knit this with me I will have a class in March to get you started. I worked mine in Luma from The Fibre Company and it is fabulous to work with. Its remarkable blend of 50% Merino, 25% Cotton, 15% Linen / Flax, 10% Silk give it a soft light feeling as you knit it. Many colors are in stock but if you need a color that isn't in please let me know and I will get it ordered.

Crochet comes to Dyed In The Wool

I am really excited to be able to welcome crochet back to the shop. In April there will be a begin crochet class followed by an amazing basket class. These classes will take place on a Saturday afternoon in April.

Spin Ins

Our February Spin In will happen on February 25th at 3pm so get your spindles ready and your wheels oiled up. Please call ahead so that I can ensure we have enough space available.

Don't Forget The Ravelry Forums

I posted a lovely free pattern on the Dyed In The Wool Forum this past week. Ravelry is an amazing resource and the Forum is a great way to share our projects, thoughts and favorite finds. Maybe you found a sweater and want to find someone that would want to make it too. The Forum is your space to communicate with others at Dyed In The Wool.

Gather Your Stash - it's time to prepare

Have you begun your stash gathering yet? I have! I am putting together several options for you and am so looking forward to sharing my ideas with you later this year.
