Housekeeping

I am sending this newsletter our little early for several reasons:

- 👤 I have really great news about LYS Day
- 👤 I will be receiving my 2nd Vaccination on April 19th and even though I am not expecting any issues it might be a good idea to check the Forum before coming in - just in case.
- 👤 I will be taking Saturday, May 15th off so Dyed In The Wool will be closed.

LYS Day - April 17th

Now to the good stuff - on Saturday, April 17th we will be celebrating Local Yarn Store Day. This is a day to celebrate our brick and mortar yarn stores. To help us celebrate this year we have some incredible, specially dyed yarn and yarn bundles from Baah, Mountain Colors and Dream In Color. I have also put together some fun yarn bundles for an updated cowl and a linen stitch scarf.

If you are interested in any of these wonderful yarn bundles don't wait until the 17th to let me know. You can reserve your bundle or two. Just let me know either by email or phone call.

Rowan Books & A Correction

I just received more of the Mode Collection Four, Ease and Magazine 69. If you have already purchased Mode Collection Four and are thinking about making the delightful Dijon pattern, please see me. There were a few pattern irregularities in the book which have now been fixed but I have the corrections available for you. I believe the errata will be published on the website shortly.

Coffee & a Chat with Jeni from Fyberspates

Our guest for Coffee and a Chat this month will be the amazing Jeni from Fyberspates. Jeni helped me put together the wonderful colors for the 2020 Christmas Surprise Shawl. Jeni has been instrumental in developing yarns for Rachel Coopey and Carol Feller. Many of you have worked with Nua and Nua Worsted which is a beautiful yarn to work with. It has fabulous stitch definition. Some of you may have worked with Socks Yeah and done some amazing socks. I am particularly fond of Gleem Lace and Scrumptious Lace when knitting Boo Knits patterns. The soft blend and sheen on these fibers make them a delight to work.

If you haven't already signed up there is still time. I will be sending out the invitations later this week. Get your Fyberspates, Socks Yeah and Nua projects ready to show off, I know that Jeni would be delighted to see them.
